

Experienced CNC Programmer, Setter, Operator

Brooksbank Valves are one of the UK's leading valve manufacturers of high-quality isolation valves for the Oil & Gas, Naval Marine, Fine Gas & Chemical Markets

You must be able to programme, set and operate CNC machines to produce accurate components some from castings and exotic alloys, working to drawings and specifications. You will be required to set the machine and carry out tool changes so experience is a necessity. You will self-inspect components and report any manufacturing errors to line manager for corrective action can be agreed. Operation and programming experience of Fanuc and Heidenhain is essential.

We need you to demonstrate a passion and enthusiasm for your work and a willingness to be flexible for business requirements including overtime and weekend work. An excellent attention to detail is crucial to the success of the candidate.

Ideally, you will be apprentice trained and have a good understanding of manufacturing protocols including OEE and 5S. You will have a working knowledge of feeds and speeds coupled with personal motivation.

Full-time, permanent position available.

In return we offer:

- Competitive salary in line with the experience of the candidate and benchmarked salary levels
- Holiday entitlement of 25 days running January to December, per annum
- Pension contributions above statutory rates

The successful candidate will need as part of the process to: (i) satisfy basic eligibility criteria/certain conditions of employment (e.g. nationality rules/right to work); (ii) provide appropriate documentation to verify ID, nationality, employment and/or academic history, criminal record (unspent convictions only); and undergo UK Baseline Personnel Security Standard checks. Due to the nature of the work performed and the requirement of the client contracts that we hold, these security checks are required and in order to pass these Personnel Security checks you must hold a current British Passport.

If you fit these criteria, please apply in writing with cv and covering letter stating your salary to jobs@brooksbank.co.uk
